A. J. AUXIER has been confirmed by the Senate as United States Marshal for Kentucky.

A RESOLUTION to adjourn sine die on the 24th ult., has been adopted by the Legislature.

GEN. JOHN ECHOLS, Vice President of the Kentucky Central Railroad Company, has established his headquarters at Lexington.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY CORKHILL says he will endeavor to have the Guiteau case set for the first Monday in May, the bill of exceptions having completed and signed.

It is expected that Mr. Blaine will appear before the Foreign Affairs committee before the close of the Shipherd investigation, and unfold the tale he can tell concerning the subject.

EVERY Democratic Congressman favored the anti-Chinese bill. Every vote against the bill was Republican. The Republican President has vetoed the bill. Thus the record of the two parties is plain to see.

A DESPATCH to the Courier-Journal from Lexington says: John Keal, of Fleming county, alias Mason, of Mason county, was arrested here this afternoon on suspicion of horse-stealing, by Officer Shannon. He had the horse in his possession at the time, and was offering to sell it for so small an amount, considering its fine appearance, that the officer arrested him. He at first claimed being from Mason county, but as he could not tell the name of any official of that county, he changed his tactics and asserted that he was from Paris. Further inquiry revealed his ignorance of everything pertaining to Paris and Bourbon also.

THE Democratic caucus on Friday night adopted the Owens plan of arranging the congressional District in the State. They will be as follows:

First District—Fulton, Hickman, Graves, Ballard, McCracken, Marshall, Calloway, Trigg, Lyon, Livingston, Crittenden and Caldwell counties.
Second—Christian, Hopkins, Wooster, Union, Henderson, McLean, Davies and Hancock.
Third—Muhlenburg, Todd, Logan, Butler, Edmonson, Warren, Simpson, Allen, Monroe, Cumberland and Clinton.
Fourth—Ohio, Grayson, Breckinridge, Meade, Hardin, Bullitt, Nelson, Larue, Marion and Washington.
Fifth—Jefferson.
Sixth—Trimble, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Boone, Kenton, Campbell and Pendleton.
Seventh—Oldham, Henry, Owen, Franklin, Scott, Harrison, Bourbon, Fayette and Woodford.
Eighth—Shelby, Spencer, Anderson, Mercer, Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard, Jessamine, Madison, Rockcastle, Jackson, Owensley and Laurel.
Ninth—Bracken, Mason, Robertson, Nicholas, Fleming, Bath, Rowan, Lewis, Greenup, Carter, Boyd, Lawrence, Johnson and Martin.
Tenth—Pike, Letcher, Floyd, Magoffin, Morgan, Elliott, Menifee, Wolfe, Powell, Montgomery, Clark, Estill, Lee, Breathitt, Perry, Clay, Leslie, Knox, Bell and Harlan.
Eleventh—Whiting, Wayne, Pulask, Casey, Russell, Adair, Taylor, Green, Metcalfe, Barren, and Hart.

THE Albany, (N. Y.) Argus writes: Gen. Grant is in the White House again. The act of the president, in asking his predecessor to be his guest, is not within criticism. But the country is not permitted to refer the fact merely to friendship and to hospitality. The dispatches from Washington are freighted with reports and intimations, that the ex-president is administering the office of the chief magistrate, in matters of the gravest and highest import. Secretaries Kirkwood and Hunt have learned, their friends declare, that they owe their approaching removal "to the demand made by Gen. Grant, upon president Arthur, that none of 'Garfield's men' will be kept in the cabinet, "a day longer than is necessary." General Grant tried very hard to get the Republican party to allow the people of the United States to pass upon the question of making him a cabinet maker again. The people, in advance, showed such a purpose to refuse to do so, that the Republican party named James A. Garfield, and he was elected. The subsequent course of President Garfield, in declining to let Gen. Grant make a Cabinet for him, incensed the General, but gratified the country. The course of law, following the murder of President Garfield by a "Stalwart of the Stalwarts," has, it is declared from Washington, given Gen. Grant that power, through a proxy, which he could not obtain by the act of his party, because of the opposition of the people. The spectacle of his wielding these powers, directly from the White House, illustrates that fondness for the dramatic and that contempt for public opinion, which are characteristic of the Stalwarts.

Narrow Escape.

On Monday last week, a son of Mr. Michael Walton, who lives near Lewisburg, while harrowing a field on his father's place narrowly escaped being killed. The gear on one of the horses by some means got unhitched and made the horse kick against the harrow. One of the teeth stuck in the animal near the tail, making it more furious. Mr. Walton became entangled in the harrow and gear and would certainly have been killed except for the timely appearance of Mr. Hawkins and a colored man, who drew him out of the wreck before he was seriously hurt.

MR. CHARLES VARIAN, who was thrown into the river and severely bruised by the accident to the Bostona some time ago, has made a satisfactory settlement with the boat company. It was liberal and all that could be asked under the circumstances.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last—No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams, (an Indian remedy,) called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electrics do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and nothing else.
Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Pile Ointment: I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave me such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness, and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.
